Subject: RE: Follow up from today's discussion

Denise,

Thank you for sending these comments along. We will work on these and then get back with you soon. The basic schedule is as follows (formal events in bold and creative additions in italics, all dates approximate):

July 2015 – now

Collaboration on new FAQ/localized outreach (reaching those closest to the site) with KRCC

September 30th - EPA releases Proposed Plan/Start of 60 day public comment period

October 8th - EPA meeting with stakeholders – availability/discussion session 1

October 15th – EPA public presentation of Proposed Plan/Public hearing

October 29th - EPA meeting with stakeholders – availability/discussion session 2

December 1st – Close of Public Comment Period

Early 2016 - EPA finalize Record of Decision (including response to public comments)

2016 - EPA negotiations with any Potentially Responsible Parties on remedy implementation

2017 – Start Remedial Design for Allied Landfill

2018 or 2019 - Start of Remedial Action for Allied Landfill

Please let me know if you have any ideas on the schedule.

Thank you and talk with you soon,
 Michael

Subject: Follow up from today's discussion

Hello Michael,

Thank you for continuing to reach out; I think our phone discussion today was extremely productive.

As discussed, please find the attached document with Sarah and my suggestions for frequently asked questions that were either lacking or not specifically addressed in past documents. We look forward to assisting Diane in any capacity in moving forward with the best public information tool.

Best, Denise
